To everyone who has helped me through the course of this project, who have made time to shed light on topics I could not have possibly comprehended alone, and those who were great company during those long nights in thesis lab... I can't thank you enough!

Dedicated to:

Mom & Dad

Last but not least, I owe all of my successes to you, you that have worked so hard to give me this opportunity. When times turn rough, my family is always there to keep my head in the game... I am eternally grateful.
