

Adam M. Finley

525 Oakwood Avenue
State College, P.A. 16803

amf232@psu.edu
724-255-5405

Objective:

To obtain a full time position with a general contractor or construction manager to apply the knowledge that I have gained and develop new skills in construction management.

Education:

The Pennsylvania State University

University Park, Pennsylvania

Bachelor of Architectural Engineering (ABET Accredited)

Construction Management

Graduation- May 2007

Senior Thesis:

Penn State- Health and Counseling Services

www.arche.psu.edu/thesis/eportfolio/2007/portfolios/AMF232/

Research:

- Constructability
- Value Engineering
- Green Design
- Emergency Electrical System
- Glass Curtain Wall
- Structural Steel Sizes

Work Experience:

Bognet Construction Associates

Summer 06

Arlington, Virginia

Assistant Project Manager- Intern

- Pre- Bids
- Estimating $200,000 + Projects
- Scheduling- Milestone and Detailed Schedules
- Field Manager
- Projects- Chemonics International, 2440 M. Street D.C., PE Training, Motley Fool

The Pennsylvania State University

January 05- Present

Office of Physical Plant- Construction Management Division

Project Management Intern

- Pre-Bids
- Estimating- $1,000- $100,000 Projects
- Office Training- Bid Packages, C.O.'s, P.O.'s
- Projects- Beaver Stadium Renovations, Lasch Football Complex Renovations, Schreyer House Renovations, White Building Renovations

Computer Software:

AutoCAD, ICE2000, MC2, Macromedia Dream weaver, Microsoft Office, Minitab, P3E, Primavera, Timberline Accounting

References Available Upon Request